DECLARATION OF JOSHUA A. DEL
CASTILLO IN SUPPORT OF FIRST INTERIM
REPORT OF RECEIVER, STEPHEN J.
DONELL, AND PETITION FOR INSTRUCTIONS

DECLARATION OF JOSHUA A. DEL CASTILLO

I, Joshua A. del Castillo, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at the law firm of Allen Matkins Leck Gamble Mallory & Natsis LLP, counsel of record for Stephen J. Donell, the Court-Appointed Permanent Receiver (the "Receiver") for Defendant Plus Money, Inc. and Relief Defendants The Premium Return Fund Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, The Premium Return Fund II Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, The Premium Return Fund III Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, Return Fund, LLC, Return Fund II, LLC, Return Fund III, LLC, Return Fund IV, LLC, Return Fund V, LLC, Return Fund VI, LLC, and their subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively with Plus Money, Inc., the "Receivership Entities") in the above-captioned matter. I am a member in good standing of the State Bar of California and have been admitted to practice before this Court. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this Declaration and, if called as a witness, could and would testify competently to such facts under oath.

2. After his appointment by the Court, on May 20, 2008, the Receiver formally requested access to any Receivership Entity documents and records possessed by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). A true and correct copy of an Access Letter written on the Receiver's behalf is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3. The Receiver's access request to the Commission was granted on May 27, 2008. A true and correct copy of the Commission's approval notice is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

4. Subsequent to his appointment, the Receiver requested that Defendant Matthew LaMadrid ("LaMadrid") deliver to the Receiver originals of all Receivership Entity documents or records in his possession or under his control. A true and correct copy of a June 10, 2008 follow-up document request made on behalf of the Receiver, and documenting LaMadrid's production of documents already produced in a related case, is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

5. Subsequent requests to LaMadrid for additional documents were met with the response that LaMadrid had produced all Receivership Entity documents in his possession. A true and correct copy of a June 17, 2008 letter from LaMadrid's counsel, Joseph Casas, reflecting

1 LaMadrid's position that all Receivership Entity documents in his possession had been produced to
2 the Receiver is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

3 6. In response to recent correspondence, LaMadrid's counsel has suggested that
4 LaMadrid would likely assert his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination were the
5 Receiver to seek any further discovery from LaMadrid. A true and correct copy of a July 10, 2008
6 letter from La Madrid's counsel suggesting the LaMadrid's cooperation with the Receiver would
7 be "on a different plane" were LaMadrid not concerned with self-incrimination is attached hereto
8 as Exhibit E.

9 7. On July 23, 2008, LaMadrid's counsel delivered a letter to the Court requesting a
10 clarification of the Appointment Order's requirement that he provide an accounting of his personal
11 assets, or allowing him an exemption from this requirement in connection with his apparent
12 decision to exercise his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination. A true and correct copy
13 of LaMadrid's request to the Court is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

14 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

15 Executed on July 30, 2008, at Los Angeles, California.

Re: SEC v. Plus Money, Inc., et al.
Case No. 08-CV-0764-BEN (NLS)

Dear Mr. Casas:

Thank you for providing Stephen J. Donell (the "Receiver"), court-appointed Permanent Receiver for Plus Money, Inc., The Premium Return Fund Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, The Premium Return Fund II Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, The Premium Return Fund III Limited-Liability Limited Partnership, Return Fund, LLC, Return Fund II, LLC, Return Fund III, LLC, Return Fund IV, LLC, Return Fund V, LLC, Return Fund VI, LLC, and their subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Receivership Entities") with copies of those documents produced by the Receivership Entities in the San Diego Superior Court matter styled Heisey v. Plus Money, Inc., et al., San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2008-00081169-CU-SL-CTL (the "State Court Case").

I am writing to request that you produce, to the Receiver or to Allen Matkins, original copies of any and all files, documents, financial information (including bank records, tax records, and contact information for any accountants who performed services for the Receivership Entities), computers, website and login password information, postal information (including lists of mailing addresses used by the Receivership Entities), and other materials within your possession or control belonging to or relating to the Receivership Entities, including original copies of those materials already produced to the Receiver (collectively, the "Receivership Materials").

Although we sincerely appreciate your making the documents produced in the State Court Case available, the Receiver is not a state court litigant, and is not subject to any discovery or other privileges asserted against the plaintiffs in that case. As you know, by virtue of his appointment, the Receiver succeeds as a legal representative to the Receivership Entities, with exclusive authority and control over their assets, including their books and records. The attorney-client privilege of the Receivership Entities likewise transfers to the Receiver. See United States v. Plache, 913 F.2d

Pursuant to Section VI of the District Court's May 16, 2008 Preliminary Injunction and Order: (1) Freezing Assets; (2) Appointing a Permanent Receiver; (3) Requiring Accountings; and (4) Prohibiting the Destruction of Documents (the "Appointment Order"), the Receiver is entitled to the turnover of all Receivership Entity property, including the Receivership Materials, irrespective of any privileges asserted against third parties in the State Court Case. In addition, Section VII of the Appointment Order requires all agents of the Receivership Entities to immediately and unconditionally provide the Receiver with access to and control over the Receivership Materials. I therefore request that you deliver the Receivership Materials to the Receiver, or Allen Matkins, as soon as possible.

As the Receiver and I have previously noted, you are welcome to retain copies of the requested materials for your records. Also, for your convenience, you may deliver the Receivership Materials to David Osias, in Allen Matkins' San Diego office. Please deliver them no later than 5:00 p.m. on June 16, 2008.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. Alternatively, you may contact David Osias, in our San Diego office. Thank you for your prompt cooperation.

Re: SEC v. Plus Money, Inc., et al.
Case No. 3:08 CV-0764 BEN (NLS)

Mr. Del Castillo:

Thank you for your correspondence dated July 10, 2008 in which you ask me to confirm the scope of the stay sought by Mr. La Madrid relative to the Receiver's duties and responsibilities. At this juncture, I think this is a question best addressed by the Judge, since, as you point out, the Receiver is court-appointed.

Please note, however, that I will be representing Mr. La Madrid in any criminal proceedings and/or investigations. As such, while the Receiver may be requesting documents/information from Mr. La Madrid which are not related to any criminal investigation, I will have to carefully consider the negative implications of LaMadrid's cooperation with the Receiver in light of the criminal investigation he is facing. Thus, you should not be surprised if Mr. La Madrid invokes his 5th Amendment right to remain silent to any of your inquiries.

I mention this to you by way of information and as a factor to consider in whether or not the Receiver will be able to thoroughly and effectively accomplish his mission as a Receiver. Certainly, if there were no criminal investigation afoot, Mr. La Madrid's cooperation would be on a different plane. I hope this helps.

Thank You,

Joseph N. Casas

Re: SEC v. Plus Money, Inc., et al.
Case No.: 3:08 CV-0764 BEN (NLS)

To the Honorable Court:

We are writing to request clarification regarding Section XIII of the Court's Preliminary Injunction and Order dated May 16, 2008 (the "Preliminary Injunction") in the above-entitled case, in light of defendant Matthew La Madrid's ("Mr. La Madrid") Motion for Stay of Civil Proceedings Pending Resolution of Criminal Case ("Motion to Stay"), which was filed on July 7, 2008. A copy of the Preliminary Injunction is attached to this letter for the Court's reference as Exhibit "A".

Pursuant to Section XIII of the Preliminary Injunction, Mr. La Madrid was to prepare and deliver a schedule of assets to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Since the filing of the Preliminary Injunction, however, the United States Attorney's Office has increased its criminal investigation of Mr. La Madrid relating to his management of Plus Money, Inc. and the Premium Return Funds (collectively, the "Funds"), and Mr. La Madrid is now informed and believes that his criminal indictment is imminent.

The schedule of assets ordered in the Preliminary Injunction would contain a full inventory of Mr. La Madrid's property and financial accounts, and a description of the sources of those assets. Mr. La Madrid is unable to fully account for the provenance of his assets without revealing potentially incriminating information related to his management of the Funds. In order to preserve his defenses in the criminal investigation he now faces, Mr. La Madrid objects to producing the schedule of assets at this time and invokes his Fifth Amendment rights. On June 18, 2008, we informed the SEC of the same via correspondence. (See Correspondence from Joseph N. Casas to Joshua A. Del Castillo attached hereto as Exhibit "B".)

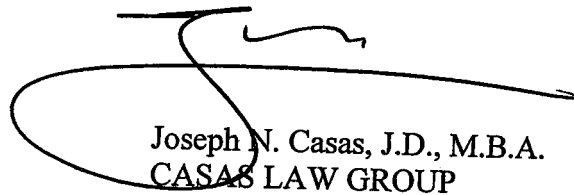

Casas Law Group, P.C. | Attorneys at Law

2323 Broadway Avenue, Studio 202, San Diego, CA 92102 TEL 619.692.3146 FAX 619.692.3196 WEB casaslaw.com

As discussed in Mr. La Madrid's Motion to Stay, which is set for hearing on August 11, 2008, Mr. La Madrid is currently defending himself in multiple civil actions as well as a criminal investigation involving the same set of facts. He currently faces the unenviable decision of disclosing potentially incriminating information in the schedule of assets which the U.S. Attorney's Office could then use to prosecute him, or invoking his Fifth Amendment rights and facing possible sanctions in this case by not producing the schedule of assets as ordered in the Preliminary Injunction. Courts have observed that the exercise of the Fifth Amendment "should not be made unnecessarily costly" for defendants in Mr. La Madrid's precarious position. See SEC v. Healthsouth, 261 F.Supp.2d 1298, 1316 (N.D. Ala. 2003) (quoting United States v. Certain Real Property, 55 F.3d 78, 84 (2nd Cir. 1995)).

Because of changed circumstances since the Preliminary Injunction was entered on May 16, 2008 (i.e., the increased intensity of the U.S. Attorney's criminal investigation, the imminent criminal indictment, the prejudice to Mr. La Madrid's constitutional rights to due process and against self-incrimination, and the filing of Mr. La Madrid's Motion to Stay), Mr. La Madrid respectfully asks the Court for clarification that he may await the Court's ruling on the pending Motion to Stay prior to producing the schedule of assets. Mr. La Madrid begs the mercy and patience of the Court and respectfully proposes that the issue of producing the schedule of assets be addressed at the hearing on the Motion to Stay and/or in the Court's ruling on the motion.

Very Truly Yours,
